

Conference 2024

Making a difference
in every classroom.

21-23 March 2024

Perth Convention
and Exhibition Centre

We are pleased to open the call for papers for the 2024 DSF Language, Literacy and Learning Conference.

Our theme is Making a Difference in Every Classroom.

Sessions may focus on:

Evidence-informed practice	Numeracy Acquisition
Reading and Spelling Acquisition	Inclusive Education
Language Development	EAL/D
Improving Written Expression	Assistive Technology
Self Esteem, Resiliency and Mental Health	Learning Disorders

Potential speakers can submit their expression of interest via the abstract submission form on the conference website, or via video.

A completed abstract submission form will include a brief biography detailing the experience, knowledge and current area of practice of potential speakers. Presenters will be selected for a short 15-20 minute oral presentation, a 45-minute informative presentation and discussion or a 100-minute interactive workshop. There will also be an opportunity to include two or three symposia in the program.

Submissions should be framed around the conference theme and one or more of the session focus areas listed above.

Submissions should not exceed 350 words (excluding references). Videos should be no longer than 5 minutes.

Submissions should be made via the abstract submission form on the conference website DSFconference.com.au by Monday 4th September 2023.
